

I AM Love

Love Rules* in the Heavenly Kingdom of My Court,* for every act is predicated* upon this Divine Attribute.

Love is the underlying foundation of all religious thought and every Ideal has its source in Love. For Love is the basis of all goodness and, indeed, the wellspring from which all the Cherished Attributes flow. Love is the Golden Chalice that holds the Nectar of the Divine. My Beloved, I would like to grant you My Divine Love.

It is true when it is said that I AM Love. The stars that light the heavens consume the Power of My Divine Love in the form of Antimatter, which extends into the vast reaches of space summoning the light of the stars. My Love actually feeds the stars and gives them the energy to shine forth their light, which is truly the Light of Love. Earth's atmosphere is permeated with My Love in the form of starlight, warmed and energized with life.
